JUDGMENT

The petitioner in O.P(MV) 195/1999 on the file of the additional Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal, Alleppey, is the appellant. The appellant filed an Original Petition claiming compensation alleging that he sustained injuries in a motor vehicle accident which took place at 7 P.M on 16-11-1998. Admittedly the petitioner was a pillion rider in the motor cycle. He sustained a fracture of the left little toe and the Tribunal awarded a compensation of Rs. 5,000/- It cannot be said that the amount of award is inadequate. So I do not find any ground to interfere with the quantum of compensation. This appeal lacks merits and is only to be dismissed.

In the result, the appeal is dismissed
